Order Diplomat To Leave

U. S. Calls Today For a Romanian To Be Removed From This Country Pronto

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States ordered today the "immediate departure" of a Communist Romanian diplomat. It said he tried to blackmail an American citizen into spying for the Romanian government.

The State department said the diplomat, Cristache Zambeletti, legation first secretary, "attempted to subvert" V. C. Georgescu, a naturalized American citizen of Romanian descent, May 20 in New York.

"The price offered for this collaboration was to be the welfare of Mr. Georgescu's minor sons and their possible restoration to their parents," the department said.

Georgescu's sons, Constantine, 19, and Peter, 14, are still in Romania and have been refused permission to join their parents in the United States.

Georgescu, who was former general manager of Romano Americano, a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey in Romania, reported Zambeletti's proposition to the FBI and the State Department.

The department said it "carefully verified" his information and sent a terse note to the Romanian legation this morning which said in part:

"The government of the United States has ascertained that Cristache Zambeletti, first secretary of legation, has engaged in activities incompatible with his status as an accredited diplomatic official.

"Therefore, this government is impelled to declare Mr. Zambeletti persona non grata. The legation is requested to make arrangements for his immediate departure from the United States."

Zambeletti, one of Romania's top diplomats here, came to the United States in September of 1951.

State Department Press Officer Lincoln White was asked whether the State Department's diplomatic language meant Georgescu had been asked to "spy for Romania."

White replied "Certainly. It is implicit in what is said. What else?"

Asked whether he interpreted the matter as attempted blackmail also, White replied "Yes."

The State Department described Zambeletti's move as an attempt "to subvert Mr. Georgescu to collaborate politically with the Communist regime of Romania to the detriment of the United States government."

Although Georgescu lives in New York City, it was understood he is currently in Washington, perhaps in connection with the case. Zambeletti was reported to be in New York today.

Georgescu has been in the United States since 1946 with his wife after the Romanian Communists "nationalized" foreign oil interests in Romania.

State Department officials said they did not know why his two sons were not allowed to come to the United States with him.

Three Romanian legation aides previously were ejected from the United States.

Lon M. Burrowes Seriously Ill At St. Louis

Lon M. Burrowes, formerly of Sedalia, is reported to be in a serious, but not critical, condition at Incarnate Ward Hospital in St. Louis with a heart ailment. He was taken ill shortly after leaving a theatre, Sunday night, and rushed to the Melbourne Hotel, where he resides, to the hospital Monday morning.

Tuesday morning, his physician, Dr. John T. Vandover, reported his condition as being much improved, but remained serious. It was indicated Burrowes would be confined to the hospital for some time.

Burrowes, who formerly worked on the Sedalia Democrat, was managing editor of the Globe-Democrat in St. Louis, which paper he has been with for many years.

He is a brother of the late Miss Rosemary Burrowes who was city editor of the Democrat and who died in 1951.

Ford Revises Union Contract, Promised Strike Will End

DETROIT (AP)—The Ford Motor Company did General Motors one better in voluntarily revising its five-year contract with the CIO United Auto workers early today by giving the union the best major pension plan in the industry—a maximum of $137.50 a month.

Before it did so, however, Ford demanded and was given assurance that the crippling strike of UAW workers at its Canton, O., forge plant would be halted immediately. That five-week-old tieup had idled 85,000 of Ford's 135,000 production workers and virtually shut down the vast Ford production system.

Ford and the UAW wound up two long days of secret, top-level negotiations by formally announcing the contract changes shortly after midnight. Ford president Henry Ford II and UAW and CIO President Walter P. Reuther led the talks.

The big boosts in pension payments—$12.50 to $35 a month—came as somewhat of a bombshell after General Motors, the industry's biggest producer and traditional labor pattern-setter, had signed a supplemental agreement with the UAW only Friday without any pension improvements.

Contracts with GM, Chrysler and virtually all the other automotive firms provide maximum pensions of $125 a month. Both this and the new $137.50 Ford figure include federal social security benefits. All apply at age 65 after 30 years' service. The $35 boost at Ford will apply to 20-year men who now will get $115 a month instead of $80.

The revised Ford contract also provides other benefits not found elsewhere in the industry: One group of skilled workers—500 die sinkers and pattern makers—will get 20-cent an hour wage boost.

Otherwise the new benefits in Ford and GM contracts are identical.

Nineteen of the 24 cents net gain picked up under cost-of-living wage hikes since the contracts were signed in 1950 will be put into base pay, to be untouched by any future price declines.

The so-called "annual improvement factor"—a guaranteed raise to cover improved production techniques—will go up from four to five cents an hour June 1.

About 21,000 skilled workers will get a 10-cent hourly pay increase. The new Bureau of Labor Statistics price index will supplant the old index as a guide to pay rates in the future.

Pushing Soviets For Pact

America, Britain, France Tell Reds Austria Treaty Can Come With Good Will

LONDON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France in a new note told the Soviet Russia tonight the long-delayed treaty for Austria can be completed only if a little good will is shown, informed officials reported.

The note was in reply to one from Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik yesterday in which Moscow turned down a Western invitation to reopen talks tomorrow on the Austrian treaty.

The Western answer, said to have been delivered to Malik after a conference of British, American and French diplomatic officials here, rejected the Russian argument that only the four-power council of foreign ministers could call a conference on the Austrian pact.

The new note was written on behalf of the Western powers by Geoffrey Harrison, British chairman of the deputy foreign ministers who have held 259 meetings in the past five years in an effort to hammer out an agreement on Austria.

Britain on May 11 had asked the other nations concerned with the treaty—the U. S., France and the Soviet Union—to reopen the talks here tomorrow. The deputies have met already 259 times—the last time Feb. 6—during the past five years in unsuccessful efforts to write a treaty which would give Austria complete independence.

Malik's reply said the Austrian question should be considered "through diplomatic channels by means of a relevant exchange of opinions" but did not specify further what he meant by this.

He said also that the meetings of the Deputy Foreign Ministers on Austria were "not a permanent four power organ" and that they should be convened by the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Big Four powers, a group organized at the 1945 Potsdam Conference.

Malik blamed the deputies' failure to agree on the treaty at previous meetings on "the attitude taken by representatives of the three (Western) powers." His words echoed a Soviet foreign policy statement in Moscow's Pravda Sunday that "direct responsibility for delaying the settlement of the Austrian treaty problem is borne by the governments of the U. S. A., Great Britain and France."

The U. S., Britain and Russia agreed at a Moscow conference in 1943 not to consider Austria as an enemy country but as one to be liberated.

The U. S. State Department issued a pamphlet yesterday recalling this and blaming Russia for delaying the treaty.

Under agreements already reached, Russia on conclusion of the treaty would withdraw her "supplies" from the Austrians, countries separating her from Soviet occupation troops in Austria. Most Western authorities consider this the chief reason for Russian reluctance to finalize the treaty.

The deputies by last year had ironed out their differences on most problems, but progress abruptly halted when the Soviets demanded that the whole question of Trieste be settled in the same treaty.

The roll call vote was 395 to 2. The bill allots the money this way: $25,184,000 for the Labor Department, $1,712,248,461 for the Health, Education and Welfare Department and $13,274,000 for affiliated minor agencies.

Passage followed last-minute defeat of a Democratic-led move to appropriate 75 million dollars for federal grants to states for community hospital construction.

The House decided to stick to its appropriation's committee recommendation for a 50 million hospital grand fund instead of the 60 million requested by President Eisenhower.

Democrats tried to boost the hospital fund to 75 million, the amount requested by former President Truman last January. They lost by a roll-call vote of 203 to 167.

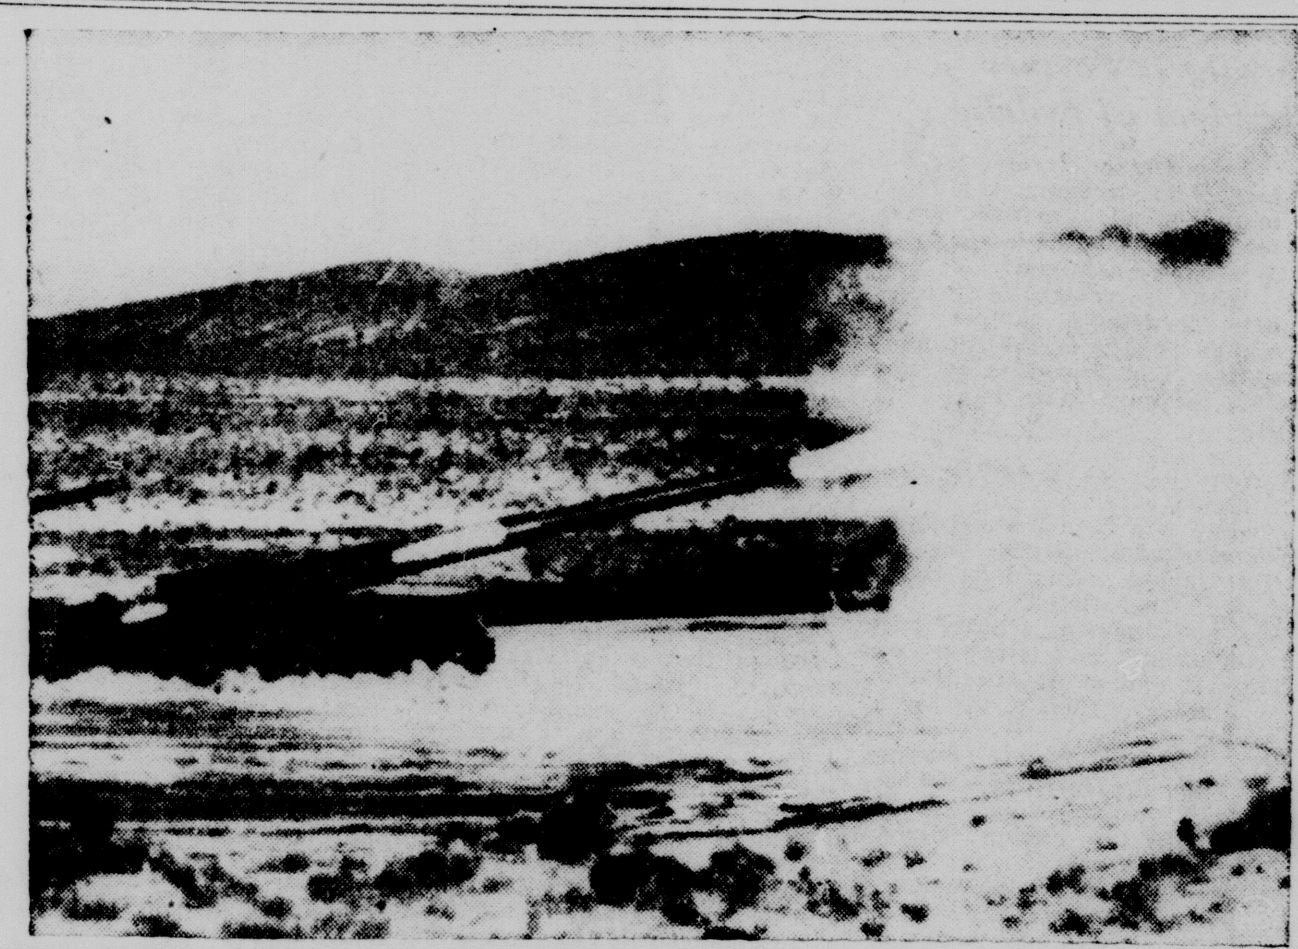

Another roll-call vote, 237 to 156, boosted by six million dollars the funds recommended by the appropriations committee for federal payments to school districts whose population is swollen by military and atomic energy activities. The House voted $66,500,000 for this purpose, the amount requested by President Eisenhower. Former President Truman asked for 70 million.

There will be no city or rural deliveries of mail and all windows in the lobby of the Post Office will be closed all day Memorial Day, May 30, according to Maurice Hogan, postmaster.

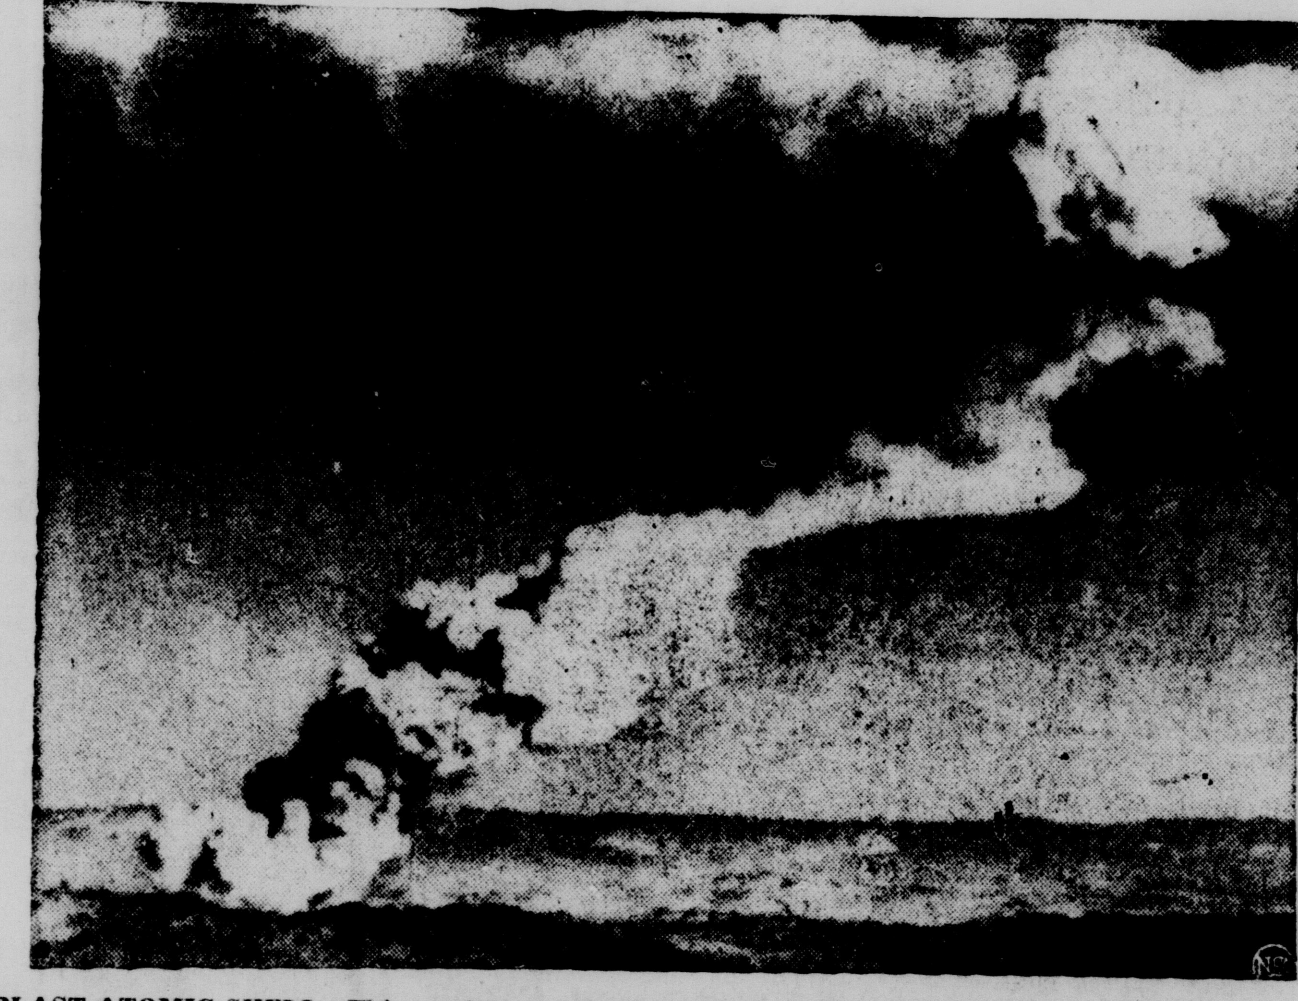

There will be the regular holiday collection of mail, however, and mail will be dispatched.

Donnelly Signs Bill Tightening Drivers' Laws

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Gov. Phil M. Donnelly signed today a bill tightening up the Missouri drivers' financial responsibility law.

The bill does not go so far as to require every driver to carry liability insurance. But its provisions are strict enough to have that virtual effect. In most cases, it would be easier for a driver involved in an accident to meet the law's requirements with an insurance policy than by providing other proof that he could cover damage claims.

Every driver involved in an accident in which a person is injured or killed, or in which property damage exceeds $100, must report it to the state director of revenue. That is in addition to the report to law enforcement officials required by existing laws.

The director then may suspend the driver's license unless he can file a certificate of insurance, a bond, a deposit of money or security or a certificate of self-insurance. To be acceptable the insurance coverage must be at least $10,000 for two deaths, $5,000 for one death and $2,000 for property damage.

The law does not apply to trucks and Public Service Commission, which have their own insurance requirements.

If your own car is the only one damaged, you don't have to report the accident. And your license can't be suspended if your car was legally parked at the time, or if it was being driven without your permission.

Warrensburg Will Vote On Sewer Bond Issue

WARRENSBURG (AP)—Warrensburg will vote Wednesday on a $1,300,000 sewer bond issue.

Similar but smaller proposals have been rejected in recent years. An outbreak of polio last summer hastened plans for submission of the proposal for a third time. Since then a survey showed about 35 per cent of the homes in the city were not connected to the present sewer system.

Rumors Start Rush to License Outboard Motors

Rumors, rumors, rumors—but they were good for the State Motor Vehicle Dept.

A run for licenses on outboard motors was made on the local license bureau, at the Brylanti Motor Co., the past few days. Thirty-eight have been issued.

It seems a Lake of the Ozarks rumor started about ten days ago that ten owners of unlicensed outboard motors were arrested at one place, ten at another and 17 at another. Locations of the arrests could not be verified.

However, it's the law, the law being passed about five years ago, but never enforced. The Highway Patrol, Conservation Commission, Department of Revenue, Morgan County Prosecuting Attorney and sheriff disclaim any knowledge or responsibility for the so-called "drive" on owners without outboard licenses.

Sedalia outboard motor owners are getting bills of sale to prove ownership so they can get their licenses. Other information needed is the serial number of the motor, the make, horsepower, bore and number of cylinders.

Ex-White House Employee Denies He Was a Spy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A one-time White House employee refused today to say whether he had passed secret government documents to an acknowledged former Soviet spy courier. He did say he never engaged in espionage against this country.

The witness was Julius J. Joseph of New York City, an associate economist for the National Resources Planning Board at the White House in 1940 and 1941, and a member of the wartime Office of Strategic Services.

Joseph refused to say whether he is a Communist. He accused the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, before which he appeared, of asking him questions at its public hearing that "are not American."

He assailed but did not deny the testimony of Miss Elizabeth Bentley, acknowledged former spy courier, who had named him as a member of a Soviet spy ring.

Joseph termed Miss Bentley "a professional witness" which he defined as one "who commercializes on the general pattern of fear, of hysteria."

He said he never had denied her testimony under oath, and declined again to say whether he spoke the truth in telling her subcommittee last year that as a soldier in 1943 Joseph "pulled strings through a friend" and got himself assigned to OSS.

There, she had said, he served in the "hush-hush Japan division" which was right next to the Russian division in order to keep track of what this country was learning about the Communists.

Turn Up Second Case Involving John W. Snyder

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators today turned up a second instance of reversal of a proposed tax ruling after former Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder intervened—this time with perhaps a million dollars at stake.

The case, dating back to 1948, involved a complex stock transaction by Austin S. Iglehart, president of General Foods Corporation, and others.

Three revenue employees testified they favored a ruling that capital gains taxes must be paid in connection with the deal, a stock merger between General Foods Corporation and Iglehart Brothers, former Indiana and then Delaware corporation.

They said from June to December, 1948, various specialists ruled that the proposed transaction could not be tax-free as asked by Iglehart.

Charles E. Tobin, counsel to the investigating House Ways and Means subcommittee, then read from bureau files showing that on Dec. 21, Snyder called Charles Oliphant, former chief counsel of the tax service, and told him about the case.

Eight days later, on Dec. 29, the files showed, Oliphant called Snyder's office and advised a "favorable ruling is in the mill."

Tobin stated that close to a million dollars in taxes would have been due if the transaction had been held subject to capital gains taxes.

Highway Dept. Checks Traffic On Highway Here

The Missouri State Highway Department is making a traffic check on Limit, from Broadway to the city limits, while an hour to hour check from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. is being made at 16th and Limit. A speed check is also being conducted on Limit and one is to be conducted in the vicinity of "Gasoline Alley" and the 50 Highway Drive-In Theatre.

The purpose of the traffic check was not given, other than it is being made on orders from the Highway Department.

A radar speed checking machine is being used at various points on Limit to ascertain the various speeds of trucks and passenger cars, and for the purpose of setting speed zones. It is believed here the check is being made at 16th and Limit in accordance with a recommendation of the City Council to establish a stop and go traffic signal at this intersection.

Although the count was not given out, and will not be made public until completely checked, it was revealed the heaviest hour of traffic up to 2 p. m. was between 7 and 8 a. m. and 8 and 9 a. m.

UN May Decide PW Fate

South Koreans Find Plan Unacceptable; Call It a Defeat By the Communists

SEOUL (AP)—Authoritative South Korean sources today revealed that the secret new Allied truce plan would give the United Nations General Assembly the final say in determining the fate of war prisoners who refuse to return to their Red homelands.

The informants said the proposal handed the Communists yesterday at Pannunjom was clearly unacceptable to South Korea. One government official called it "nothing but an Allied defeat by the Communists."

The proposal also incorporates some features of previous plans offered by both the Reds and Allies, said the sources, who would not allow use of their names.

The U. N. Command—which reportedly requested the news blackout on Monday's truce session—would not comment on the plan. It even refused to acknowledge the offer was made.

Some observers in Tokyo said the Allied proposal possibly is being used as tempting bait to Red China, which has long wanted to get into the United Nations.

By accepting the plan, they said, it would give Red China a toehold in the General Assembly—through the back door.

Presumably the Chinese Communists, as an interested party, would attend the General Assembly. This would give them another chance to make propaganda at a world forum.

Once before they took advantage of such an opportunity. Shortly after Red China entered the Korean War, it sent a delegation to New York at the invitation of the U. N., which was trying to work out a truce in Korea. The Chinese communists went hoping to air their charges of "American aggression in Korea," but they were not allowed to bring up the charges.

Communist Peiping radio for the second straight day treated Monday's truce meeting in a reserved manner—in contrast to previous denunciations of the Allied proposals.

It said the U. N. Command asked for secret talks "for the same of free discussion," but did not say the Allies made a new proposal. The truce talks were recessed after Monday's session until June 1.

Apparently at Allied request so Red negotiators can send the plan to Peiping, or even to Moscow.

The South Korean sources said the new plan reverses the Allies' May 13 proposal under which 34,000 bailed North Korean prisoners would be released as civilians immediately after an armistice.

The final disposition of these and 14,500 Chinese captives who refuse to return to Red rule is the last major roadblock to a truce in the nearly three-year-old Korean war.

The ROK sources said South Korean President Syngman Rhee—who insists his government will not accept any armistice that would leave Korea divided—was not consulted before the plan was drafted.

Nor was Maj. Gen. Choi Duk Shin, South Korean delegate to the truce talks, the sources said. Choi boycotted Monday's truce session—probably on orders from Rhee.

South Korea's Cabinet met Tuesday, but government spokesman Dr. Kari Hong said there was no discussion of an open break between South Korea and the United Nations over truce negotiations. He said the cabinet did not discuss any phase of the talks.

The ROK informants said the new Allied plan:

1. Drops the Allied May 13 proposal that North Korean POWs be freed in South Korea after an armistice. The Reds bitterly oppose this.

2. Retains the Red-proposed five-nation commission to take over the 48,500 reluctant prisoners after a truce. Red agents would have 90 days for "explanations" to the bailed captives.

3. Turns over to a post-war political conference all prisoners who still refuse to go back to communism. It was not learned how long the conference would take for this matter, but the original U. N. plan fixed a 30-day period. Finally the remaining POWs in custody would be handed to the U. N. General Assembly.

4. All decisions would be made by majority vote. The exact meaning of this provision could not be immediately determined but presumably it applies to the five-nation commission and political conference.

The Allied proposal, described by Allied sources in Tokyo as a by-product of the Indian plan, is similar to the Indian plan adopted by the United Nations Assembly last fall. The Reds turned it down at that time.

Nehru Sees, Endorses Latest UN Proposal On Korean Truce

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today he has seen and endorsed the latest United Nations proposals on Korea. He expressed hope that an agreement may be reached soon at Pannunjom.

Nehru told a mass meeting the proposal is the closest so far to the Indian resolution on Korea which was accepted by the United Nations.

Rep. Kean 'Convinced' Snyder Exerted Influence In Tax Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Kean (R-N.J.) said today he is convinced former Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder exerted "undue influence" in a favorable tax ruling for a liquor company executive.

Snyder said that as a government official he had always given "whole-hearted devotion to the public interest."

Kean commented as a House Ways and Means subcommittee, which he heads, arranged testimony today on a second tax case in which Snyder allegedly took a personal hand.

Kean said the subcommittee will look into several "bigger" cases than the one it heard about yesterday. He added the investigating group has no intention of asking Snyder to testify, but will be glad to hear the longtime Truman administration Cabinet member if he wants to be heard.

Snyder is now vice president in charge of finance for Willys-Overland Motors, Inc. In a statement issued at Toledo, O., he said:

"I have conscientiously served the government, except for short intervals in private life, for a great many years in a number of responsibilities. In each assignment I have always given whole-hearted devotion to the public interest. I confidently feel that my services have left a good record."

Revenue Bureau workers testified yesterday that a series of technical specialists approved an unfavorable tax ruling for John L. Leban, former vice president of Schenley Industries and a contributor to Democratic and Republican election campaigns. The ruling was reversed in Leban's favor, however, in the office of former Revenue Bureau Chief Counsel Charles Oliphant, about Oct. 30, 1950.

Subcommittee Counsel John E. Tobin read from Oliphant's telephone log that Snyder had called

Snyder Is Former Resident of Sedalia

John Snyder, former secretary of the treasury, is a former Sedalian. He lived here for several months in the '30s as a bank examiner.

While secretary in President Truman's cabinet he visited Sedalia as the speaker at the ham breakfast at the 1951 Missouri State Fair.

Oliphant four days earlier about the Leban case.

"There is a case I would like to have expedited," Snyder was quoted as saying. "This must be gotten out immediately."

The call produced a hasty series of conferences and telephone consultations among Revenue Bureau and Treasury officials, the log indicated.

The Revenue Bureau operates under the Treasury Department.

After this round of calls, Snyder was quoted as calling Oliphant again the same day:

"Louis Johnson is interested in this thing. If there's anything we can do, let's try to help them out."

"Okay," Oliphant replied, according to the log.

Walking Queen's Six Miles Most Popular Sport

LONDON (AP)—The most popular recreation in giddy London today was to "walk the Queen's six miles."

It's the route through streets and parks along which Queen Elizabeth's coronation procession will pass just a week from today, she riding splendidly in the gold and purple state coach drawn by eight sleek Windsor Grays.

Excitement increased as the fabulous day approached, and a game which Londoners and many thousands of visitors have invented is to see the city just as the Queen will see it. Tens of thousands jostle and plod along the route, gaping at miles of spic and span grandstand which have converted sober London into a gay and fluttering town of color and light.

The lift to the spirits of her Majesty's subjects can almost be felt. Britishers, who have pretty firmly established a reputation for minding their own business, have suddenly become effusively sociable. Strangers talk to each other, argue, laugh and invite each other to have endless cups of tea.

Some of those who argue insist that the grand scale on which monarchy's finest spectacle is being organized is a foolish extravagance. But everyone loves the Queen, and the fault finders—even those few who like to think themselves as wanting a republic—rush down The Mall with the coronation enthusiasts to converge in dense thousands about Buckingham Palace.

The royal standard again flew from the palace flag pole today, showing that the Queen had returned from a breather at the secluded and pleasant royal lodge at Windsor. Even during her absence the crowds stood, shoved and milled about, watching the maneuvering of the brightly uniformed guards and occasionally catching glimpses of trim horses being taken from the royal mews for rehearsals of their coronation day maneuvers.

At one time last night police reinforcements were called to clear away crowds pressed against the palace gates.

Hal Boyle's Column-- Letter to Ex-GIs Tells How Peace Changed London

By HAL BOYLE

LONDON (AP)—An open letter to any ex-G. I. Joe from the London he used to know:

Dear Joe,

I came over here to see the queen get her crown, and I've been here three whole days, and not one little kid has said, "Got any gum, chum?" I tell you, it gives you a lonesome feeling.

The old town sure has changed from wartime days when a guy in an American uniform with a carton of cigarettes under his arm could walk the streets and feel like a king.

Remember how beat-up and battered London looked then? Well, now she looks like some old family aunt who has come into a little money, got her face lifted, put on a new paint job, bought herself some glad rags—and started looking for a boy friend. It's fun to see the old girl smiling and having a good time, after all the years of tears.

The British are going about this coronation the same way they fight a war or make tea—methodically and thoroughly. They will do the job right, even if the queen becomes eligible for an old age pension before she finally gets her crown.

You know how fast we throw up some wooden stands in America for some local festival, such as running the mayor out of town. Well, the coronation stands look like they had been built for the ages. They are held up by miles of metal piping, and the English

Sgt. John Dotson Rests In Japan

WITH THE 2D INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—M/Sgt. John E. Dotson, son of Mrs. M. Dotson, 706 North New York, Sedalia, recently spent five days in Tokyo, Japan, on a rest and recuperation leave from the 2d Infantry Division in Korea.

The vacation was part of the Army's policy of giving periodic rests to soldiers in the combat zone. Luxurious "R" and "RR" hotels are located throughout too soon, kid. But that boiled potato you left behind you is still on the menu, 10 years soggy.

Remember how we used to wear an arm out in a block saluting the top brass out at Eisenhower Platz, where General Ike had his headquarters? Well, I went out there in a cab and drove around the square for old times' sake, and the yellow housefronts were freshly painted, and I didn't see a single American uniform, not even one tired old abandoned colonel.

Boy, that gave me an eerie feeling. But if they finally got all those colonels out of town, swivel chairs and all, I guess the war must really be over and what we are having is peace.

House Seeks Senate Okay In Compromise

JEFFERSON CITY — House leaders sought Senate approval today of a new compromise agreement designed to end the stalemate in the Missouri legislature over how $740,000 in appropriations shall be spent.

The new plan differs from one offered by the House yesterday and rejected by the Senate appropriations chairman. Today's proposal makes no attempt to settle a big stumbling block, appropriations for the state mental hospitals.

Yesterday's plan was to split the House and Senate differences on the mental hospitals 50-50. That would have given the hospitals about $26,500 for the two years beginning July 1. But Sen. John W. Noble (D) of Kennett, reached in Bloxi, Miss., said he wouldn't agree to this.

The new offer, on which Noble's approval was being sought, would be for the house to begin formally preparing all bills but the ones affecting the mental hospitals for signing. Then, when both houses return this weekend, renewed attempts would be made to settle differences on the mental hospital bills in time for their signing before the mandatory adjournment May 31.

Rep. A. Clifford Jones (R) of St. Louis County, who has been working with Sen. Michael Kinney (D) of St. Louis, in an attempt to break the stalemate, said House leaders had agreed to this plan.

Kinney called Noble in Bloxi again this morning to outline the new plan to him, but was unable to reach him. He said he would try again later.

The switchboard operator at the hotel in Bloxi reported that Noble was out on a fishing jaunt. The tieup resulted last week when a joint House-Senate committee appointed to arbitrate the House and Senate differences over appropriations failed to reach agreement.

The Senate then recessed until May 30, leaving just one day of working time before it must halt all business. That left the House in the position of either knocking under to the Senate or calling its own sidown strike.

After long debate, the House asked Gov. Phil M. Donnelly to call the senate back to work, then went home until May 29 or until the speaker calls it back.

Donnelly said yesterday he could not, under the constitution, step into the disagreement and would try to get so. That gave the ball back to the legislature, which would be forced into special session during the hot summer months if the appropriations snarl isn't worked out before May 31.

The contest, which was preceded by a dinner and followed by square dancing, was held by Districts 4 and 7 of the Kiwanis Club as part of the boys and girls work.

Other contestants from Sedalia were Merlyn Garrett, tap dancer and Lucille Kirby, acrobatic dancer. Mrs. Ann Marquess was accompanist for all three contestants. Sedalia, California, Jefferson City, Booneville, Columbia and Versailles were represented by talent and the three judges based their decision in part on applause.

Those attending from Sedalia Kiwanis Club were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pharris, Mr. and Mrs. John L. A. Walter Kennedy, William Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Woolery, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Soxman, The Rev. Arthur E. Schmidt of Cole Camp, a member of Kiwanis here, also attended.

A car parked on the sales lot of the Boots Motor Car, headed south, decided to do a little moving on its own. It was a 1940 tudor sedan.

Chambermaid Named In Trust Funds Left By Old Hotel Recluse

NEW YORK — For 15 months Mrs. Bridget Hennessy, a middle-aged chambermaid from Kilkenny, Ireland, tidied up the room of an elderly hotel recluse, shopped for her and heated food.

Each week there was a tip; it was always 50 cents—"I used to think she was not well off," said Mrs. Hennessy.

A few days ago the lonely guest died. She was Mrs. Mary G. D. Campbell, and she had lived by herself in the Delmonico Hotel 20 years. Her name still appeared in the Social Register.

When the room was searched a number of bankbooks under several names, and a hand written list of the bank balances he paid to those named on the accounts.

The chambermaid's name was entered in trust on four of the books; one account was for $10,000; another $6,900; $7,000 in the third; and $9,800 on the last. Grand total $33,700.

Card Reaches Couple Despite No Address

ABBYVILLE, Kas. — Absence of an address failed to halt delivery of a postcard to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens of near Abbyville. They received a card reading, "Everything is fine. Wish you were here."

It had no signature, and the only clue was the postmark, Seligman, Mo. But it obviously was from their daughter, Helen Marie, on a graduation trip with other Abbyville high school seniors.

After getting the card, Postmaster J. W. McGuire called several high school youngsters who recognized the girl's handwriting.

Apparently the card was sent to Abbyville by the Seligman postmaster because several other cards were mailed from that town the same day by the Abbyville graduates.

The golden jubilee of the founding of the Australian Commonwealth is being celebrated in 1951.

Garden Club Plant Sale Goes Over Top, $30.65 Received

It is a right nice feeling when you set out to reach a certain goal to find that you have gone a little over. That was the feeling Mrs. P. L. Strole, president of the Past Presidents Club of the Sedalia Garden Clubs, had Monday.

With Mrs. Ida Harriman, chairman, her committee and other members of the club, Mrs. Strole planned a plant sale and set her goal at $25. Somehow the plant sale didn't seem to fit in the spring picture just right. It was a late, cold spring. There were so many Garden Club activities. There were many things that came up, and the sale even had to be postponed a week.

Monday afternoon the group gathered for the sale. It looked vastly different from last year's sale, which was put on by the Garden Club Council with members of nine clubs participating. Last year the large lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ferguson, 1600 West Seventh, looked like a county fair with little stands all overplanted with plants, people everywhere and even big colorful umbrellas.

This year, the not too big a group of women sat in the garage at tables eating doughnuts and drinking coffee on a very hot afternoon. In the breeze of the home were a few women with plants to sell. The nickles and dimes were being counted. Some of the women shook their heads a little in doubt of whether it was really worth it or not. Mrs. Strole knew it she made $15 she was going to be doing mighty well.

Mrs. Strole kept counting the money. "Not quite," she said, "But it isn't too far, $21.58." The women began to pick up the plants they had bought and put them in their cars. They wandered about Mrs. Ferguson's garden and Mrs. C. L. Carter's garden across the street.

Nickels and dimes kept adding to the pile as one, then another and then another decided they wanted some of the leftover plants or maybe

Senate Probe Of N. M. Vote Set to Begin

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The U. S. Senate Wednesday starts a first-hand probe into New Mexico's 1953 senatorial election.

Three members of a Senate elections subcommittee will open—if legal snarls permit—a giant recount of almost a quarter of a million votes cast by New Mexicans last November.

The seat held by Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) is the issue in the recount, which follows a several months investigation by a staff representing the subcommittee. Chavez was certified the victor in the senatorial race by slightly more than 5,000 votes. The loser was Patrick J. Hurley, soldier, statesman and diplomat making his third bid for the Senate.

Hurley filed a contest with the Senate, alleging widespread election irregularities. Three New Mexico county clerks face certain legal trouble at the outset of the recount effort. They have been directed by District Judge R. F. Deacon Arledge to retain possession of ballots and registration records until ordered otherwise by his court.

The three clerks—and Arledge—have been served Senate subpoenas, directing them to turn over the records. Arledge was directed by the Senate to appear Wednesday morning to turn over keys held by him to the state ballot boxes in three counties.

Arledge has declined to say whether he will make the directed appearance, or subject himself to a possible Senate contempt citation. The clerks face similar citations if they do not relinquish records and possible contempt citations by Arledge if they do.

Members of the subcommittee expected to arrive late Tuesday for the showdown are Sen. Frank Barrett (R-Wyo.), chairman; and Sen. Charles Potter (R-Mich.) and Sen. John Hennings (D-Mo.). They are scheduled to leave Washington by plane today.

New Pavement Bounces Eggs Harmlessly, With One Minor Exception

ST. LOUIS (AP)—One of seven eggs dropped onto a new rubber-topped playground paving broke, but School Building Commissioner V. Harry Rhodes said he was well pleased.

The unique use of eggs was made yesterday during opening ceremonies for the new Nottingham Elementary School.

The paving was designed to prevent injuries to children who fall while playing.

Mrs. Doris Cook, president of the school's Mothers' Club did the egg dropping.

The first one splattered. Unperturbed, she moved a few feet and dropped the rest, all from a height of five feet. They just bounced, which was what they were expected to do.

Insects have a world-wide range, from the polar regions to the tropics.

ExParatrooper Falls 11 Stories, Lives To Laugh About It

CHICAGO (AP)—A husky ex-paratrooper "just relaxed" when he fell 11 stories from a building under construction Monday and suffered only a broken rib.

"Hey, I must have forgotten my parachute," grinned Thomas Grace, jr., 27, as fellow workers rushed to his aid.

Grace, a pipefitter's apprentice, joking about his fall, said:

"I was in the paratroopers in World War II and I learned how to fall. I twisted my body so my head wouldn't hit. That saved me."

Grace was drilling a hole at the 11th floor of the skeleton building when the handle of the electric drill came off and the vibration tossed him out into space.

At the third floor level his left side smashed against a brick-layers' scaffold.

"I got a look at the faces of some of the bricklayers," laughed Grace. "Boy, were they surprised!"

Grace landed between two manholes under construction and missed bricks and rubble in the area.

Buzzing Sound Makes Mail Sorters Nervous

NEW YORK (AP)—A mysterious buzzing coming from two packages sent from the same place made employees at the Brooklyn general post office suspicious yesterday.

So the police bomb squad was called. The officers took the packages to a nearby vacant lot and carefully opened them.

Inside each package was a toy telephone set, operated by batteries and accidentally turned on.

Says Military Tried To Start Mobilizing In Too Much Quantity

CHICAGO (AP)—Deputy Secretary of Defense Roger M. Kyes said today the Truman administration's effort to achieve a partial mobilization in a short time after the Korean War started "created a state of indigestion" for both the military and for industry.

Production fell below assigned goals, Kyes said, because after enduring years of famine the military was asked sums of money too large for effective use.

Kyes characterized the previous goal of 143 wings by mid-1955 as "too high for orderly achievement in the time available."

In a speech for the Inland Daily Press Association, Kyes called for sufficient U. S. military strength

Nevada U. Profs. Testify Regarding Insubordination

RENO (AP)—Some fellow faculty members of Dr. Frank Richardson, accused of insubordination toward President Minard W. Stout of the University of Nevada, were called to testify today that he merely was exercising his right to academic freedom of expression.

Dr. Richardson, head of the biology department, is on trial before the University Board of Regents. The charge of insubordination was made by Dr. Stout. Several faculty members testified yesterday that Richardson several times had been overly critical of the president.

The hearing may be concluded today. But the regents were expected to take perhaps two days to decide whether Richardson went so far as to attempt to usurp powers of the administration, and thus should be fired.

Stout came to Nevada last fall from the University of Minnesota. He proposed admission to the university of any Nevada high school graduate without scholastic or specific course requirements. Richardson, who's been at Nevada 12 years, opposed that.

ELIZABETH the Queen

XVIII
QUEEN ELIZABETH loves children. Many times as we drove round London on our way to and from those Monday-afternoon treats Queen Mary used to give us or on the way down to the Royal Lodge, Windsor, she would suddenly lean forward and say, "Look, what a lovely little girl that is." Or, "Isn't he a sweet-looking child?"

Whenever she had to speak with children or take bouquets from their embarrassed hands, a new gentleness came over her. "Thank you so much," she would say, smiling at them in a pleasant, open way which made them feel that here was not some magnificent lady, but a kind elder sister or aunt. She has a way with children which is quite delightful to watch. Obviously she loves to be with them.

That is evident with her own children. We used to play, I remember, a game of peep-bo together when she was small. The Princess would be playing in the garden behind 145 Piccadilly, and I would hide myself behind a bush.

Suddenly I would pop my head out and say "Peep-bo," at which she would go off into a long gurgle of laughter, which I would stimulate again by repeating the performance whenever it seemed likely to stop. It was a game of which she never tired. I was amused the other day to see a charming picture of her taken at Clarence House, where she was obviously playing just the same game with Prince Charles. As a private citizen she would be able to spend most of her day with them, and lucky children they would be.

This thought brings to mind the touching reunion between her and Prince Charles on her return from Malta, where she had visited her husband.

At the airport a silver aircraft touched down on the runway, slowed to a stop, and then swept in a graceful arc toward the control tower.

The crowd which had waited surged forward, surrounding the plane, while panting policemen struggled to keep them from crushing the tiny figure in a lemon-colored coat, clutching his nurse's hand, and staring with round eyes at the now-stationary airplane.

The aircraft's door opened. A member of the crew came down the steps toward the child and said a few words to his nurse. Then he lifted the little boy into the aircraft.

Mother and child, together for the first time in 11 weeks, embraced in the plane, while the crowd waited patiently. And none among them grudging Princess Elizabeth the enjoyment of a few precious moments of privacy before she stepped out to acknowledge the cheers.

QUEEN ELIZABETH, mistress of her own household, with her own family around her, and carrying the responsibilities of the Throne is her father's own daughter.

Throughout the long association with the Royal Family which I have been privileged to enjoy, I have constantly had before me her parents' example of perfect unity. The King, the Queen, and their two lovely daughters always took such pleasure in one another's company that they seemed to draw strength from one another.

Their harmony gave no scope to the traditional jealousy of courtiers. There was none of the court favoritism and petty bickering of the old times, for there was no chance for jealousies to arise. The Royal Family as an indivisible unit, bound together by love and loyalty, stood above and apart from all that.

During the King's illness and the absence of the Duke of Edinburgh in Malta, the Princess and her mother were almost constant companions. It was not only her deep love and sympathy for her mother that kept her by her side, but also her responsibilities as the King's daughter.

And there was in that companionship also a continuing of the good habits that have grown up with her from childhood. When Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret were children it was their father's greatest delight to romp with them.

I felt that there was something special about his feeling for Princess Elizabeth. He showed it in a different way from his obvious love for Princess Margaret, who could always charm him.

Princess Margaret's personality was so compelling that she could make him snuggle up and tell stories when he really was too tired.

Princess Elizabeth would always sense his mood and conform to it. When I used to see them walk together from the Royal Lodge to the stables, where they fed the horses, they seemed to me a perfect picture of father and daughter.

The King, so tall and slim, bending slightly to the little figure by his side—and she, with her hand confidently holding his, always had so much to talk about. And so seriously.

To Princess Elizabeth he always used his normal, adult tone, as one understanding, sensible person to another.

POLITICAL HAZARD

THE WORLD TODAY—Obstacles to Austrian Peace

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, who take the Russians' peace talk with a grain of salt, have said the Kremlin could demonstrate sincerity by agreeing on an Austrian peace treaty.

But Sir Winston Churchill has been strangely optimistic since Russia's Premier Malenkov last March said he thought peace was possible. Churchill's British government suggested a new Big Four conference on Austria.

Representatives of the United States, Britain, Russia and France have met more than 200 times since the war to work out a treaty—the last time was in February—and the progress made could be stuffed into a thimble.

And because they have never been able to agree, they have occupied Austria since the war. The Western Allies have 25,000 or more troops there, the Russians about 45,000.

So long as Russia has troops in Austria, she has an excuse for keeping some of her troops in Romania and Hungary, too. The reason? To keep open Russian lines of communication, the Kremlin says.

Once a treaty was signed all the Big Four would withdraw from Austria. In that case Russia would have to find another excuse for keeping troops in the two nearby satellites, Romania and Hungary.

For that reason, and because Russia's troops in Austria give her a bridgehead to the West, some Austrian officials have been skeptical the Russians would agree to a treaty any time in the foreseeable future.

Nevertheless the British thought another try was worthwhile. The invitation they sent out was for representatives of the U. S., Britain, Russia and France to meet in London tomorrow to tackle the Austrian problem again.

Churchill went even further by proposing that he and President Eisenhower and Malenkov have a meeting of their own on a raft of other difficulties.

The U. S. was willing to send a representative to the Austrian conference but Eisenhower balked at meeting with Malenkov until the Russians showed by deeds—an Austrian peace treaty would be one—that they wanted peace.

So what the Russians did at the London conference on Austria was going to be watched very carefully. But late yesterday, almost at the last minute before conference time, the Russians coldly rejected the idea.

Declining to send anyone to the conference, the Russians, through their ambassador to London, Jacob Malik, said they couldn't see how another meeting on Austria promised any more results than the previous 200 meetings.

This may have thrown into gloom those Western diplomats who shared Churchill's optimism. But it does not cancel out the possibility that tomorrow, or next week, the Russians may make a new, conciliatory move in another direction.

They could offer a concession in a place that means less to them than Austria, even though they had no intention of carrying through on it.

For if they could make those same Westerners, who were dejected by the Russian stand on Austria, jump with hope and eagerness about something else they'd be doing precisely what the Russians seem to be trying to make them do: dance to the Russian tune every time the Kremlin plays one.

It would not be surprising if, to drive a wedge deeper between the U. S. and its Western allies who are more eager to grab at Russian bait, the Kremlin soon offers to do something which means far more to Britain or France than to this country.

That would put this country in the position of having to yield or face the prospect of a widening split between itself and its friends.

It is said the human eye is capable of detecting the difference of one-millionth of an inch.

Rep. Price Calls Ike Military Budget 'An Invitation to Attack'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Price (D-Ill.) today termed President Eisenhower's military budget "an invitation for an enemy attack." He called upon Secretary of Defense Wilson to "give reassurance to the American people that defense was the primary objective" in cutting funds for air power.

And influential Senate Democrats, declaring open warfare on administration military policies, aimed at substituting foreign aid cuts for proposed Air Force economies.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) and Sen. Maybank (D-So.) said in separate interviews they will vote within the appropriations committee to cut back Mutual Security Administration (MSA) funds while opposing a reduction in aviation funds.

Price, an armed services committee member, suggested in a speech prepared for the House that "accountants" in the Bureau of the Budget may have overruled Wilson and ignored the Joint Chiefs of Staff in setting the $36,171,288,000 military budget for the year beginning July 1.

The figure is $5,247,128,000 less than former President Truman recommended. But it includes an increase of more than one billion dollars for the Army, largely to finance the Korean War.

Price said $919,134,000 was trimmed from naval aviation, in addition to $3,000,000 slashed from Air Force funds. He said that made the air power cuts about six billion dollars. Eisenhower has said that 60 cents of every defense dollar next year will go to the Air Force and the Navy for air power.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, on his return from a trip to South America, told newsmen last night he attended a meeting of the National Security Council at which the final decision was made to accept proposed fund cuts.

"I was there to answer questions, but I was not asked for my opinion and did not give it," Vandenberg said. "There I neither approved nor disapproved."

He declined immediate comment on the effect of the cuts.

Sen. Russell joined other Democrats in scoffing at Secretary Wilson's contention that air strength will be built up despite the proposed appropriations slash.

"If Mr. Wilson had found a magic formula by which we can cut our plane building program and still increase our air strength, Congress ought to be told about it," Russell said sarcastically.

"If he can perform such feats of legerdemain, the logical sequence would be to cut the Air Force requests 10 billion dollars and get twice as much defense."

Maybank said he, for one, isn't going to vote to spend $5,800,000,000 to supply military and other assistance to U. S. Allies while reducing the amount available to America's own air arm.

He said he thinks the MSA program can stand a slash of two billion dollars.

Price based his conclusions on a letter from Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge to Wilson, dated May 7. Price said it indicated that Wilson had not shaved enough from the Truman budget to carry out "the administration's stated policies and budget objectives."

The Bureau of the Budget is the President's spokesman on fiscal matters and has the final voice on all budgets before they are sent to Congress.

Price said Dodge's letter raises these questions: "Whether the advice of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has been followed" and "Is Secretary Wilson, himself, in full accord with the proposed cuts?"

He added: "Are we to plan our defense and defense of future generations on the recommendations of accountants, adding machines and computers rather than on the recommendations of men who have spent their entire adult careers in the study of military problems?"

"Have we suddenly found out," he asked, "from some mysterious source that Russia also can be covered by penny-pinching efficiency better than it can be by the air force which is equipped to deliver the atomic bomb at any designated target in the world?"

A number of Democrats, and a few Republicans, have questioned the wisdom of the proposed cuts in new Air Force funds. Several GOP senators, however, have dared the Democrats to seek restoration of the funds.

Rep. Brownson (R-Ind.) said in a speech at Baltimore last night that "corporals' guard of heavy spensers" is "putting their limited knowledge of the high level military needs of the country" against Eisenhower's judgment.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) suggested on an MBS radio program last night that Eisenhower is in a difficult position "when his Republican conferees begin to twist his arm and say, 'we want a reduction in taxes.'"

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas brought up traces of a Democratic honeymoon with the Eisenhower administration to an end with an attack yesterday on Republican military, financial, farm and labor policies.

Addressing the Women's National Democratic Club here, the Senate Democratic leader said the people are "bewildered." He said the President hasn't shown any leadership yet.

"Does our Defense Department believe that fewer ships, fewer guns and fewer planes mean greater strength to defend our country against communism?" he demanded.

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) said he thinks Johnson was "just talking politics," particularly with reference to Air Force money cuts.

Carlson noted that proposed reductions in appropriations requests affects funds to be spent two or three years in the future and will not shave the money already made available by past Congresses for the air arm.

Not all of the Democrats were lining up behind the party leader in the effort to whittle foreign aid funds.

Sen. George (D-Ga.), a foreign relations committee member, said he will vote for the proposed five billion dollar aviation slash because he believes economies can be accomplished only by trimming down funds for future years.

NOW EVERYBODY'S STUMPED—It looks like a shell-blasted battlefield—and in a sense it is a battlefield. For months townspeople of Newington, N. H., fought to prevent the Defense Department from turning this vast acreage into a $50,000,000 jet air base. But they lost and the government went ahead with its plans, clearing the area of the trees local folk had fought to save. Now, because of manpower and budget cutbacks, Defense Department has abandoned its plans for a base there.

Drew Pearson's Washington Merry-go-round Eisenhower Ponders Cabinet Shortcomings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The President is becoming increasingly moody over the shortcomings of certain cabinet members. Here is the general line-up of how the cabinet rates with Ike.

He takes an increasingly dim view of Secretary of State Dulles. Secretary of Defense Wilson annoys him.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson is liked, but the President has begun to realize that the farmers don't.

Secretary of Labor Durkin seems to make no impression on the President, is regarded as a necessary evil.

Secretary of Interior McKay has left the President pretty much alone, knows how to get things done without ruffling White House waters.

Attorney General Brownell and Postmaster General Summerfield rank high, somewhere behind Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, and are aware, wrote Wilson, of the problem from the standpoint of his legislative liaison expert Gen. Wilton B. Persons. Persons is a No. 1 advocate of compromise with Ike's enemies in Congress.

This policy now shows signs of failure, and Persons' health may force him to withdraw from the job.

Ike has also lost some of his enthusiasm for his chief of staff, former Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire. Adams has his eye on Sen. Styles Bridges' seat, which is up for grabs next year, and this could be Adams' cue to bow out of the White House.

What Ike is hunting for are more people with a global view, including a White House chief of staff with more international experience.

Red Potash in U. S. It's been kept undercover, but the Communists are dumping potash in the USA at cut-rate prices.

American producers claim this is an attempt to close down our domestic mines, so we will be caught short of potash in case of an emergency. They point out that potash is high on the strategic list, since farmers must have it for fertilizer.

This column has been able to trace the flow of Communist potash back to an East Berlin firm, called Dia, run by German front men but strictly controlled by the Russians. Their source of supply is the East German Potash Mines in the Communist zone.

Three American firms have been quietly doing business with Dia and peddling the Communist potash on the American potash market at knockdown prices. They are: Woodward and Dickerson of Philadelphia; General Fertilizer and H. J. Baker, both of New York.

However, Herbert Rauffuss of Woodward and Dickerson explained to this column that he not only had the state department's permission to trade in East German potash but had actually been encouraged to keep the lines of trade open behind the Iron Curtain. He claimed that his company had bartering third-rate tobacco for the potash. Thus, the West has been getting strategic potash in return for poor-grade tobacco, and he argued that it would be unpatriotic not to snap up such a deal.

Furthermore, he pointed out that the government, itself, bought 40,000 tons of Communist potash from his company and transshipped it to Formosa to help Chiang Kai-shek's farmers. The deal was made through the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Note: Dozens of private fertilizer plants have refused to buy the cheaper East German potash and cinch his appointment, this meant his goose was cooked.

Meantime, five House ways and means Democrats—Forand of Rhode Island, King of California, Dingell of Michigan, Eberhart of Pennsylvania and O'Brien of Illinois—were all set to vote against Tuck. Since the Virginian needed a majority of six of the ten ways and means Democrats to more to American producers. In brief, the U. S. government is buying Communist potash that many American firms have boycotted.

Washington Pipeline Senate Red hunters are hiring a secret ex-Communist wife to catalogue any party-liners in American colleges. Chief Investigator Robert Morris went behind closed doors to ask the Senate judiciary committee for permission to pay her without putting her on the pay roll. He made the request in an aura of great mystery, refused even to divulge her name. The committee finally agreed that she could be hired anonymously for two days a week at $35 per day. . . . Secretary of Defense Wilson has refused to turn over comparisons between Russian and American plane production to his chief budget critic, Democratic Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri. "I am sure you are aware," wrote Wilson, "of the problem from the standpoint of security." Yet Symington used to be Secretary of the Air Force with clearance to see the nation's most guarded secrets. . . . The Air Force still has received no takers on the $100,000 offer to any Red pilot who will deliver a MIG fighter into American hands in Korea. Early in the war, how-ever, a North Korean pilot flew a Russian World War II Yak across the lines and turned it over to the Americans.

Atom Cannon Now Reality For Defense

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The atomic cannon is an established reality today in America's defense plans. Nuclear scientists have compressed the virtual equivalent of a standard A-bomb into a shell only 11 inches in diameter.

These appear to be the principal results of yesterday's highly successful first firing of a nuclear shell from the Army's 280 millimeter gun.

But scientists of the Atomic Energy Commission are not relaxing, although the tenth and last scheduled test of the 1953 spring series is over. With the plaudits of defense leaders and legislators ringing in their ears, the AEC technicians are discussing plans for still another test within the next month at Nevada Proving Grounds.

Test Director Carroll L. Tyler will not disclose the nature of the experiment under consideration, but indicates there is one more problem Dr. Alvin C. Graves, scientific chief, and his aides wish to solve before going back to the nuclear workshop at Los Alamos, N. M.

There is hardly anything short of the hydrogen bomb, however, which could impress observers more than this historic cannon shot which whistled seven miles across Frenchman Flat and exploded with A-bomb brilliancy at 500-foot elevation.

The blast snapped off 50-foot trees and flipped railroad boxcars and Army tanks like toys, reports from viewers indicated. The full effects on various types of Army construction, materiel and clothing will be the subject of study for weeks.

Another 2,525 troops came through maneuvers without reported injury following the blast. A flight of 12 B-36 bombers from Carswell, N. M., Air Force base roared over the site. More than 20,000 armed forces men received atomic training on land or in the air during the spring series.

Federal Employment Drops Another 21,700

WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of federal government workers dropped another 21,700 during April to reach a May 1 total of 2,506,600, the Civil Service Commission reported today.

The commission said most of the cutbacks came among civilians employed by the armed services and in the Economic Stabilization Agency, the economic controls bureau now going out of business. Part of the reduction was offset by a seasonal boost in Agriculture Department payrolls.

The United States has more than 100 CAA-licensed mechanic schools.

Godfrey Will Leave Hospital Shortly

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts General Hospital officials said today radio-TV star Arthur Godfrey will be discharged as soon as he recovers from surgery performed 11 days ago on his right hip.

Dr. Dean A. Clark, the hospital's general director, said Godfrey also was scheduled to undergo surgery on his left hip, but "the decision has been made to postpone it."

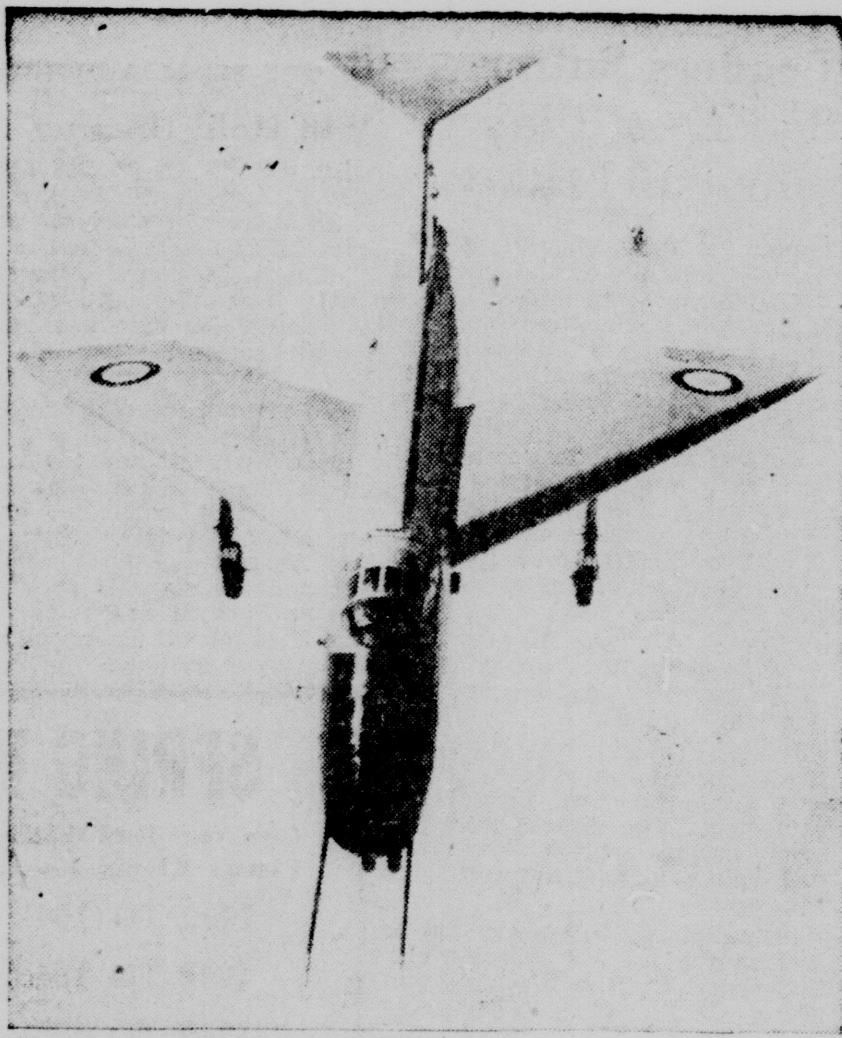

Godfrey suffered multiple fractures of both hips in a 1931 auto accident.

Pompeii Plans Plays

POMPEII, Italy (AP)—Dead Pompeii will come alive again this summer. Classic Latin plays of long-dead Titus Maecius Plautus are to be staged in the 2,000-year-old theater of the city which volcanic Vesuvius buried.

Instead of vacationing Roman swells in togas, the audience will be mostly tourists, including many Americans.

Prof. Amedeo Maiuri, superintendent of antiquities here, announced Pompeii's two ancient the-

Atom Pysicist New President Of U. of Penn.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An atomic physicist who during World War II aided in knocking out—with submarines—the last sea route from Japan to the mainland of Asia is to be the new president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, 49, was nominated yesterday to succeed Harold E. Stassen and, in accordance with University rules, the Board of Trustees will formally elect him to the job June 10. He will take office July 1.

Stassen resigned Jan. 19 to become Mutual Security director in the Eisenhower administration.

A native of Evanston, Ill., Dr. Harnwell joined the faculty of the university in July, 1938, and has been chairman of Penn's physics department since then.

During World War II he was granted a leave of absence and from 1942 to 1946 he served in the position of director of the University of California Division of War Research, U. S. Navy Radio and Sound Laboratory, San Diego, Calif.

It was for his work then that he was awarded the Medal for Merit for being "directly responsible" for severing the sea route from Japan to the mainland of Asia.

His work has been completely uncovered and restored in preparation.

Romulo, Magsaysay Will Oppose Quirino In November Election

MANILA (AP)—A diplomat turned politician and an aggressive Communist Huk-buster, both of whom President Elpidio Quirino's Liberal party will run against their former boss in the Philippines' November election.

Carlos Romulo, former ambassador to the U. S. and former delegate to the United Nations, made certain of that today.

He announced formation of the Democratic Liberal party with himself as the standard-bearer in the Nov. 10 election.

Popular Ramon Magsaysay, former Defense secretary who broke with Quirino last February, heads the opposition Nacionalista party ticket and has started his campaign.

Vice President Fernando Lopez, who joined some 200 Romulo supporters in storming out of Sunday's Liberal party nominating convention, will be the smooth-talking diplomat's running mate.

Rotarians Go To District's Assembly Session

The fifth annual district assembly of the 194th district Rotary International was held at Lexington May 24-25 with Albert J. McNally of St. Joseph, district governor, presiding, assisted by Harry M. Gamble of Kansas City, governor elect.

Those attending from Sedalia were: W. E. Hurlbut Jr., president of the Sedalia Club, George H. Routsong, president elect, William B. Rich, vice-president, Keith Yount, secretary, Leonard Peabody, treasurer, Dr. A. L. Walter, director, J. O. Latimer, W. D. Smith and Ray Lippard. This was the largest representation of any club in the district.

The Sunday program was held at Wentworth Country Club followed with a banquet. The after-dinner speaker was M. Graham Clark, president of the School of the Ozarks.

Monday's session was principally a business session ending with a luncheon.

Jobless Musician Kills Wife, Jumps 6 Floors to Death

NEW YORK (AP)—A jobless musician made his last appearance yesterday before an audience—some 250 curious passersby who watched him plunge to his death a half hour after he killed his wife with a hatchet.

His stage was a roof six stories above Broadway at 184th Street. He shared it with his teen-aged daughter, who had covered in horror as he killed her mother. The girl then vainly tried to talk him off the roof.

The saxophone-clarinete player, Joseph Dura, 40, brought down the final curtain on his life 10 days after being released from Bellevue Hospital. He had undergone psychiatric examination there following a quarrel with his wife, Wanda, 37.

Yesterday the two argued again. The climax of the fight came when he hacked his wife with the hatchet. Their daughter Barbara, 16, witnessed part of the attack and then fled for police.

When she returned, her father was on the roof for his last act. He clutched a television aerial, then loosed his grip and back-flipped from the roof.

Yesterday's Games— Many Records In Arc Tilts Monday Night

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

Night games turned into nightmares in the major leagues last night in one of the wildest programs since they first flipped the switches that brought artificial daylight to the big time.

Included in the action were:

1. A modern major league record for consecutive strikeouts.
2. The longest nine inning game in the history of baseball.
3. The season's high in hits for an American League team.
4. A run scored on a "three base walk" plus a balk.
5. One club using 23 players, equaling the American League record.

Big Max Surkont of the Milwaukee Braves struck out seven Cincinnati batters in a row, waited 38 minutes for a rainstorm to subside, then fanned one more for the modern record. He won the game, the second half of a twilight night doubleheader, 10-3, for his sixth in a row. He hasn't been beaten.

A gathering of 24,445 of the Milwaukee faithful braved six hours of rain and high winds to watch their new pets win both games. Rookie Don Liddle hurled a three hitter to take the opener, 5-1.

The marathon game came at Yankee Stadium, where the Boston Red Sox needed three hours and 52 minutes to whip New York at home for the first time since last August. The score was 14-10, and in running up the margin the Red Sox pounded six New York pitchers for 20 hits, high in the American League this season.

Down by as much as eight runs the Yankees rallied in the late innings and in the ninth Joe Collins went all the way around for free.

He walked, advanced to second and third unopposed and scored on a balk by Ellis Kiner.

The Yankees lost out their first place margin to 2½ games over the Chicago White Sox, who edged St. Louis, 7-5, although the Browns threw 23 men into the fray. This tied an American League record for men used.

In the only other American League action the Washington Senators scored five runs in the first inning and downed the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-1.

In the National League the twin Milwaukee triumph gave the Braves a full game lead over the St. Louis Cardinals, who went on an 18-hit rampage against a half dozen Chicago pitchers in pounding out a 14-3 decision. This game and New York's 6-3 victory over Pittsburgh were played in daylight.

Brooklyn rallied to hand Philadelphia its fifth straight loss, 11-9, at night after a delay of an hour and 21 minutes because of rain.

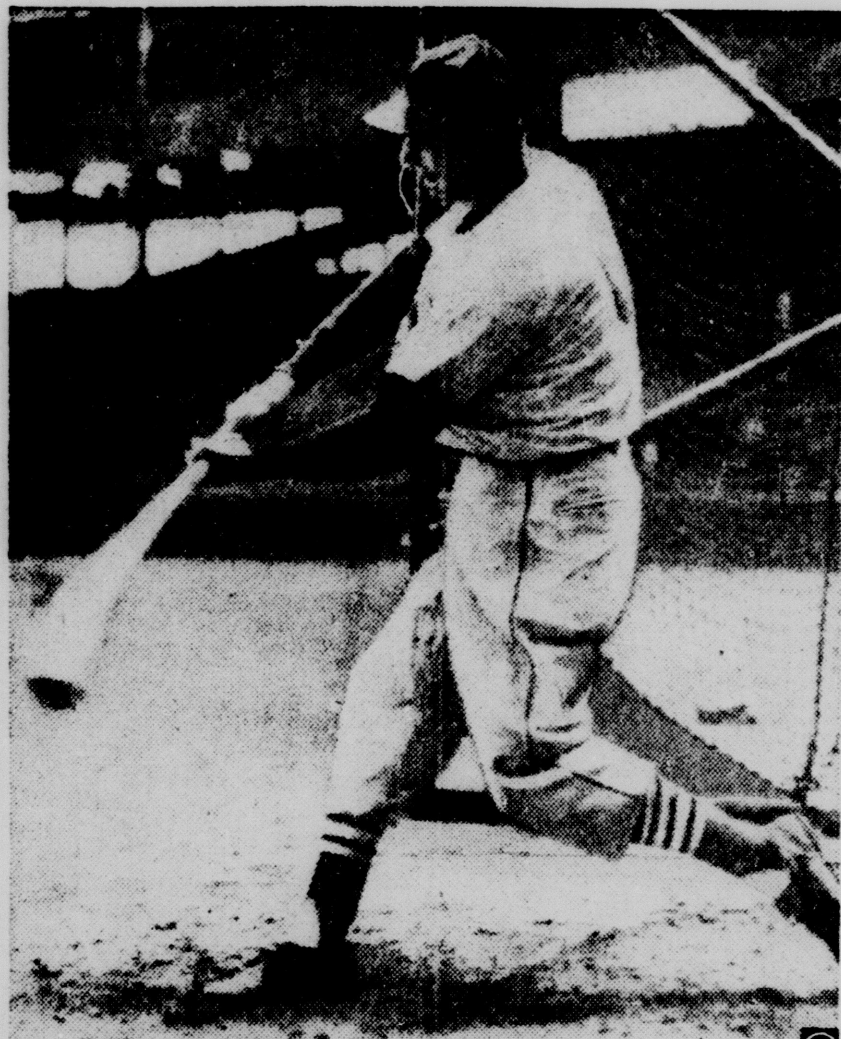

Cleveland and Detroit in the American League weren't scheduled.

Big Ralph Kiner hit his 300th home run at Pittsburgh. The big slugger collected all three of the Pirates' runs.

The Palace of Engineering, at Wembley, England, is the largest concrete structure in the world.

Lead Tea is a U. S. innovation says the National Geographic Society.

BAT-BENDING WORK—After going 1 for 24, Stanley Musial bent to the task of sharpening his eye in extra practice in the batting cage at St. Louis' Busch Stadium. The Cardinals' six-time National League batting champion returned from the first eastern trip with a .233 average. (NEA)

Sports Roundup—

Roosevelt Raceway Opens Amid Cabbage and Housing 'Patches'

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—Roosevelt Raceway, the most fabulous sports establishment since the Roman Colosseum was in its heyday, has opened its hospitable gates for another 198-night stand out among the cabbage patches and housing developments on Long Island.

By the time the trotters and the pacers have completed their chores in the fall, it is estimated that more than 2,000,000 persons will have visited the old, abandoned auto racing plant on the outskirts of this city and will have poured some $100,000,000 through its mutuel machines.

This marks the 14th year of the transplanted hayburners, and we older residents of the island no longer gawk in astonishment when confronted with traffic jams eight miles long in the early morning hours. In fact, nobody gets too excited about Roosevelt any more. It couldn't have happened, but it did, and how would you like to have a piece of the mint?

In almost any small gathering hereabouts it is possible to run into at least two fellows who had a chance to buy into the operation for, say, $5,000 back in 1940 when the promoters were struggling to bring the sport to the big city. For that amount you got a real nice chunk of stock, but the men who were willing to risk that kind of money on such an obviously crack-brained scheme were scarce.

The fanatics who thought they could bring the trotters in off the farm and show a profit had other troubles, too. The men who owned and drove the animals were extremely skeptical, and when the night set for the grand opening approached the vast majority of them still were in the rural reaches, picking up $200 purses at county fairs. A fellow who was close to the plight of the promoters tells us:

"The day before the opening, as I recall, we had only 35 horses in the stalls, and we had advertised an eight-race card. It was a desperate situation. But then it began to rain, and you never saw rain more welcome. It came down for three days, and while everybody was feeling sorry for us we were sending out appeals for horses and promising the moon.

"Well, by the time it stopped raining we had enough horses to fill the card, eight horses to the race. Of course, some of them had to double up and trot twice in a night, but that was quite customary at the time and nobody minded. Once the crowds began to come and the owners saw what was going on there no longer was a horse shortage, but it was a close thing. What if that rain hadn't started when it did?"

The man shuddered, as one would at the thought of losing a fortune. No figures are available but the group of believers who sank their money in the scheme must have done approximately as well by this time as they would have with a private oil field. Yonkers Raceway, on the other side of the city, has been an equally lucrative operation for the past several years, but its owners didn't have to gamble. They had information.

In the United States, the average diamond sold for an engagement ring is one-fifth of a carat.

Ralph Kiner Into 300 Homer Circle Quicker Than Any

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Big Ralph Kiner boasts 300 home runs today—a feat he accomplished faster than any other great slugger in major league history—even the mighty Babe Ruth.

Kiner, Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder, attained the goal yesterday by belting a 1-1 pitch—a curve ball—off Pitcher Al Corwin of the New York Giants in the fifth inning with two teammates aboard.

That gave Kiner the distinction of joining the ranks of 11 others who have hit 300 home runs or more. They are:

Babe Ruth 714, Jimmy Foxx 534, Mel Ott 511, Lou Gehrig 494, Joe M. Maguire 391, Johnny Mize 356, Hank Greenberg 331, Ted Williams 324, Al Simmons 307, Rogers Hornsby 302, and Chuck Klein 300.

Kiner is the only active National League pitcher to hit 300 roundtrippers. Mize, the aging first sacker of the New York Yankees, collected some in the National and the others in the American League.

"It's a wonderful feeling to hit 300 home runs," remarked the 29-year-old Kiner. "But it would have been a lot nicer if we would have won the game."

The Giants ruffled three Pittsburgh pitchers for 12 hits and a 6-3 victory—the ninth in the last 11 games.

The ball that Kiner belted for his 300th roundtripper and the sixth of the season was presented to him by Frank Hiller of the Giants.

Hiller caught Kiner's wallop in the Giants bullpen—340 feet from home plate, just beyond left field fence.

Fazio Is Low Qualifier Monday For PGA Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—The veteran George Fazio, who has come close but never won a major golf championship, was the nation's low qualifier yesterday in trials for the National Professional Golfers Association tournament.

The slender Pine Valley Country Club professional from Clifton, N. J., carved seven strokes off par as he shot around the Reading, Pa., Country Club course in 69-66-135. Par is 71.

Fazio led seven qualifiers in his district and turned in the best trial effort nationally for the PGA championship July 1-4 at the Birmingham, Mich., Country Club. The Pine Valley pro tied with Pete Cooper, former Florida professional now at Purchase, N. Y., led a field of 45 in the Metropolitan New York trials at Port Washington, N. Y., shooting 68-69-137, five under par, over the Sands Point course.

Claude Harmon of Mamaroneck, N. Y., former Masters champion, and Mike Turnesa, brother of defending PGA champion Jim Turnesa, were among the eight who qualified in this test. Long-hitting Jimmy Thomson failed to make the grade.

Ed Furgol qualified at St. Louis. Toney Penna made the grade at Columbus and Charlie Bassler qualified at Richmond, Va.

Leaders Suffer 2nd Loss; Play Marshall Friday

Manager Frank Luck's Schlitz Leaders will try to get back on the winning track here Friday night after being overturned for the second time this season Sunday evening by the Jefferson City Stags in a 14-2 contest at Center Park.

Fastballer Bud Van Loo had the local club eating out of his hand, as he did in the teams' first encounter three weeks ago. He fanned 11 while giving up five hits and watching his mates commit two errors.

Charles Weller, the Leader's third baseman, was the only Sedalia to have any success, getting two for four.

Rabbit Vossen, the Stag left fielder, paced the winning attack with three for five, including a home run. The visitors scored in every inning but the fourth and had eight runs at the end of three frames.

John Roberts and Harry Meyer divided the Leader mound work, Roberts working the first four and Meyer winding it up. They combined to allow seven runs, three earned.

Southpaws Lead Batting Contest In Both Leagues

NEW YORK (P)—A pair of left-handed hitting veterans have taken over the major league batting races.

Mickey Vernon, is out in front in the American League at .362 and Johnny Wyrostek of the Philadelphia Phillies has jumped back into first position in the National League with .370.

Vernon, the Washington Senators' steady hitter for years, wore out the ball for 11 hits in 25 times at bat last week and vaulted from fourth place to the top. He displaced George Kell of Boston, the 1949 batting champion, who fell to second this week at .356.

Vernon also passed Pete Suder of Philadelphia, who dropped to third at .345, and Cleveland's Al Rosen. Rosen fell to fifth behind New York's Mickey Mantle, a .358 batter, when his average dipped to .330.

Wyrostek, an early season leader when the averages were in the stratospheric .400s and even .500s, belted seven safeties in 15 tries despite the Phils' five straight losses. The splurge added 19 points to his average and left him seven points ahead of second place Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals, who had .363.

Roy Campanella of Brooklyn, meanwhile, had only six hits in 26 times up and plummeted to fifth place in the standings at .333. He lost 26 points and fell behind Richie Ashburn of Philadelphia, third with .356, and Jim Greenburg of Cincinnati, fourth with .349.

Sweeny Advances To Third Round In British Golf

HOYLAK, England (P)—Robert Sweeny of Palm Beach, Fla., who won the British Amateur golf title in 1937, today advanced to the third round of the 1953 British championship with a 4 to 3 victory over William Stead of the Isle of Man.

The greying veteran, a long-time resident of England, was the first "name" golfer to complete his second round match as the second half of the field swung into action for its opening matches.

About half the field of 244 played yesterday and some of those players were scheduled for third round matches later today.

Three top grade Americans saw initial action on this second day of the tournament. They were Harvie Ward, defending titleholder from Atlanta, two-times British winner; Frank Stranahan of Toledo and Frank Strafaci of Hempstead, N. Y.

Stranahan had the sternest test, meeting Ian Patey, winner of the English Amateur Title in 1946. Ward opposed John Caldwell, an Irishman. Strafaci tangled with a fellow Long Islander, C. Raymond Petersen of Port Washington.

Two other stars of the giant American contingent — Jim McHale of Philadelphia and Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., won easy victories yesterday on a course that alternated between summer temperatures and wild storms.

Randy Sandy Wants Bout With Langlois In Middleweight Class

BROOKLYN (P)—Randy Sandy, a 22-year-old middleweight with only one defeat on his record, today set his sights on Pierre Langlois, the Frenchman who has been beating most of the middleweight contenders.

But first he has a date with Ted Murray of New York two weeks from now at Ridgewood Grove.

"After that one, we're going after Langlois," said his manager Hyman Wallman after he whipped Tuzo (Kid) Portuquez of Costa Rica last night at Eastern Parkway arena.

Sandy, who has lost only to Willie Troy, was the 2-1 favorite and fought like it, although he got over-confident in the eighth and was caught with a right to the chin that sent him reeling across the ring. Otherwise, though, he was complete master of Portuquez.

Sandy weighed 156 1/2 to Portuquez' 160 1/2.

Little League Gets Sectional Tourney For Six State Area

The new stadium of the Little League has been selected as the 1953 site for the Sectional Play-offs of the six mid-western states. The date for the tournament has tentatively been set for August 9-10.

The sectional teams will represent Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Illinois and Missouri. Sedalia's Little League executive committee in a meeting Monday night, accepted the invitation from the National to hold the tournament in Sedalia.

It will be a one-game elimination for the championship, with the championship and consolation games being played on the second night.

Due to the poor support from fathers of the Little Leaguers in reporting for work at the stadium it has become necessary to postpone the opening of the season one week. The plans had been for the stadium to be ready on June 1, but because of the lack of cooperation in getting additional help out to get the stadium, diamond and grounds ready it has become necessary to put the opening over to Monday, June 8.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Little League met Monday night at the Elks Club, at which time they discussed taking over the concession at the league's new stadium.

The women will meet again on next Monday night at 7:30 at which time final arrangements will be made. All mothers of Little League players are invited to attend.

Dark Star Ends Racing Career; Leg Injured In Preakness Saturday

NEW YORK (P)—The racing career of Dark Star, the rags-to-riches colt who won the Kentucky Derby in one of the biggest upsets in the history of the run for the roses, came to an abrupt end today, the result of an injury to his right foreleg.

Owner Harry F. Guggenheim, who bought Dark Star for $6,500 in 1951 at the Keeneland Sales where he was shopping for another yearling, said the injury was a bowed tendon and that it was suffered in the Preakness last Saturday.

Thus the brown colt—the only horse ever to beat Native Dancer—won't get another chance to whip the Dancer in the Belmont Stakes on June 13. Dark Star was running according to schedule in the Preakness, then suddenly let up at the three-eighths pole and finally finished fifth.

There was an ironic coincidence in Dark Star's retirement. Back in 1945, Polynesian, father of Native Dancer, won the Preakness, with Hoop Jr. second. Hoop Jr. suffered an injury in that race and never ran again.

The generally clear skies of the last three days may end tomorrow. There still was no reliable word as to the progress of the British climbers.

River Ski Try For New Record Resumed Today

MEMPHIA (P)—A fellow bouncing down the Mississippi on water skis plans another stab today at breaking the non-stop record for that somewhat unique mode of travel.

Frank Beddor of Minneapolis said he'd ski the 200 river miles from here to Greenville, Miss., or bust a towrope trying.

Beddor has covered about 900 river miles since he left Minneapolis May 16, clinging to a 60-foot towline behind an aluminum outboard motorboat. But he hadn't been able to equal or better the record: 180 miles in eight hours, non-stop.

The entire crew, including a great dane dog, made it from Caruthersville, Mo., to Memphis in high style yesterday — riding the

St. Louis Hits All Over Park To Drub Cubs

By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Cardinals had base hits—lots of them—going all over Wrigley Field in Chicago yesterday as they staggered the Chicago Cubs, 11-3, for their sixth victory in their last seven games.

Stan Musial, looking more like the National League champion he has been, boosted his batting average closer to the 300 mark with three of the hits, two of them homers. He also walked twice.

His first home run in the sixth came with Red Schoendienst on base and went over the right field wall. In the eighth he put the ball into the left field bleachers with two mates aboard.

Steve Bilko unfurled his sixth homer of the season and singled twice while Schoendienst singled three times and doubled once in six trips to the plate.

While all this was going on Joe Presko hurried his way to his third victory, giving up six hits and walking four. Al Brazle relieved him in the sixth, allowing three more hits.

The White Sox rallied twice with four-run and two-run innings at Busch Stadium in a night contest, handing the Browns their eighth straight loss, a 7-5 affair.

Ex-Cardinal Harry Brecheen, in a relief role, drew his sixth loss in his brief American League career. He still is without a victory for the season.

cushions of a stationwagon. The boat, its motor out of whack, was hauled here on a trailer for repairs.

It had been somewhat less than a breeze so far, said Beddor, who undertook the trip to ballyhoo Minnesota's lake-dotted vacation lands. He had to quit shaving four days ago—windburn, sunburn.

Beddor doesn't cut a fancy figure while heading downriver towed at an average speed of 25 miles an hour. He wears too many clothes.

Besides long-handle underwear, he girds himself with a pair of jeans, 2 heavy sweatshirts, a pair of rubberized coveralls and heavy woolen socks.

"Gets cold out there," he said. Hailstones once destroyed 80 square miles of wheat in Canada in a quarter of an hour.

The Browns had a 1-0 lead until the Sox broke loose for four fourth inning runs off starter Virgil Trucks with doubles by Vern Stephens and Sherm Lollar and singles from the bats of Sam Mele, Minny Minoso and Nelson Fox. St. Louis worked its way back to the front, taking a one-run lead in the seventh when Johnny Groth singled home Willie Miranda. The Palsome came back in the eighth with two runs on doubles by fox and Chico Carrasquel and singles by Jim River and Ferris Fain. Relief hurler Lou Aloma gained his second victory.

Choice Seats For Parade Bring $165

LONDON (P)—Choice seats along the coronation route sold for up to $165 apiece today—with many still on the auction block—even as holiday crowds converged on this metropolis for a preview of the royal pageant only eight days away.

Seat prices looked steady after a slight decline about two weeks ago. Seats still offered were mainly in the top price bracket and included champagne, television and in some cases overnight accommodation as well as a view of the procession.

Carnival gaiety held away in old London this Whitmonday, a national holiday in Britain that thousands of foreign visitors turned into an international festival.

It was a strange sight strolling along the Mall—gabardined, camera-carrying Americans; turbaned Indians; many strange accents and strange faces.

All—as much as the little Cockney—seemed to have caught "coronation fever."

Queen Elizabeth II, whose big day is June 2 when she will be formally crowned, was out of the city, resting with her family at Windsor.

But even with the royal family away, Buckingham Palace was a mecca.

Many came in family groups, carrying picnic baskets and camping for hours in the golden sunlight just to watch the colorful changing of the palace guards.

Others of "the queen's people"—ranging from tribal African chiefs in their native dress to prime arriving in the city in large numbers.

Flags and bunting, and arches blazed with "God save the queen" covered London's war scars with bright displays just a dozen years after the blitz of World War II.

Firemen Drag Lake For Missing Boy

KANSAS CITY (P)—Firemen and Red Cross workers were to continue dragging the Lake of Woods in Swape Park today for seven-year-old Dennis Moffat, missing since Sunday.

A large number of searchers went over the 1,416-acre area of the park yesterday, but found no trace of the lad.

Dennis became separated from his brothers, Charles, 10, and Max, 8, Sunday morning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Moffat, who moved to Kansas City from Springfield, Mo., about seven years ago.

VIGIL FOR A YOUNG MASTER—Waiting patiently beside clothing of his master, Lobo, pet dog of 15-year-old Ronald Bivens, keeps a mournful vigil while police grapple for Ronald's body in a pond near Weymouth, Mass. The boy drowned while experimenting with a home-made underwater breathing device.

Movie Income Drops 108 Million Dollars, Television Is Blamed

HOLLYWOOD (P)—The annual movie box office figures announced today by the Film Daily Yearbook show a 108 million dollar drop from those of the previous year.

The yearbook listed 1952 theater receipts of $1,170,000,000 for 1952 as compared with $1,278,000,000 for 1951.

Television was listed as the big competitive factor for declining receipts.

Diana Lynn Charges Husband Is Cruel

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (P)—Suit for divorce has been filed by Actress Diana Lynn against John C. Lindsay, architect.

The complaint, filed yesterday, alleges cruelty. The actress asked for approval of a property settlement reached out of court. Miss Lynn, under the name of Dolly Loehr, got into pictures as a pianist when she was only 15 in 1941. She and Lindsay, 34, were married in 1948 and separated last Jan. 5. They have no children.

The population of the world is increasing at the rate of more than 12,000,000 annually.

Negotiations Resume In WDAF-TV Strike

KANSAS CITY (P)—Negotiations between management and striking union employees of stations WDAF and WDAF-TV were scheduled to resume at 1 p. m. today after a six-hour session last night.

A spokesman for the Kansas City Star Company, which owns both stations, said after the talks recessed shortly after midnight that "some progress" had been made.

The dispute—principally over the question of fees to be paid in addition to regular announcers' salaries—has kept the two stations off the air since Friday.

Federal Mediator Ernest E. Myers is sitting in on the negotiations.

Blackbird Likes Its Worms Sliced, Served On Plate, Stays Tame

LOS ANGELES (P)—Cream Puff the blackbird wants her worms served cut up and on a plate. Otherwise she flies into a tizzy. "I'm afraid civilization has throttled her instinct," said Mrs. Sarah Sloan today. "The poor bird would starve if I didn't cut up her worms and serve them on a plate."

Connie Sloan, 9, rescued Cream Puff after the bird fell out of a nest. The Sloans tried releasing Cream Puff—now 6 weeks old—to return to the wilds. She returned at feeding time. She ventures on daily flights but returns when Mrs. Sloan rattles a spoon in a dish.

Judge Says Wayne Need Not Support His Mother-in-Law

LOS ANGELES (P)—Actor John Wayne has won a point in his temporary alimony battle with his estranged wife. The judge says he doesn't think Wayne should have to continue supporting his mother-in-law.

Jerome Rosenthal, attorney for Mrs. Esperanza Bauer Wayne, contended yesterday the actor should continue to pay $650 to her mother.

"I don't see how you can expect to force this man to support his mother-in-law when the law does not require him to do so," Judge William R. McKay said after objections by Wayne's attorney.

The former actress asks $9,350 monthly temporary alimony pending trial of her separate maintenance suit. The actor contends $900 a month plus $1,300 he pays monthly on the Encino estate she occupies should be sufficient.

Sabre Jets Get 12 MIGs In Air Today

SEOUL (P)—U. S. Sabre jets shot down 12 Communist MIGs and damaged another today, boosting their MIG kills this month to 51—just 12 less than the war's one-month record set last September.

Two sharpshooting pilots bagged two MIGs each in savage sky battles high over North Korea.

Maj. James Jabara of Wichita, Kan., the world's first jet ace now serving his second combat tour in Korea, got two and boosted his total kills to nine. Maj. Jack E. Mass of Red Bank, N. J., doubled his score with two MIGs.

The war's one-day record is 13 kills, one probably and seven damaged on July 4, 1952. Today's bag was the biggest since May 18 when 12 Red jets were destroyed.

Five MIGs were shot down this morning and seven after noon, the Air Force said.

Night-flying B26 bombers wiped out 90 Communist trucks, destroyed a locomotive, seven box cars and a railroad bridge in pre-dawn strikes, the Air Force said.

B29 Superforts smashed a 130-acre troop and supply area north of Hamhung on Korea's east coast and bombed smaller supply dumps in the same area.

Ground fighting dwindled to patrol clashes as the air war mounted in intensity.

The opening sky duels flared while Sabres were flying cover for 23 Sabre fighter-bombers which streaked deep into North Korea and blasted a troop concentration area on the West Coast, 10 miles southeast of Namsi. The Air Force said 22 buildings were destroyed.

Other Sabre fighter-bombers slammed 1,000 pound bombs into Red anti-aircraft guns northeast of Kumsong, attacked rail lines and supply areas, the Air Force said.

Allied warships pounded Communist shore batteries and other installations on both coasts, the Navy announced.

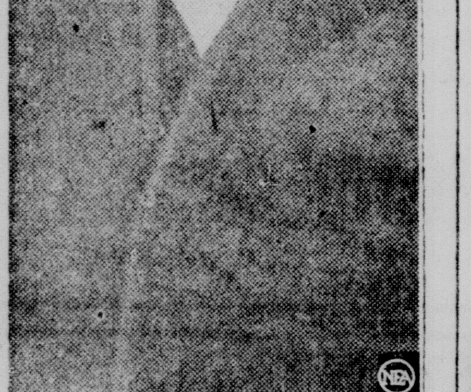

Mrs. Roosevelt Sees Japanese Silk Plant Without Trouble

TOKYO (P)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt visited a Japanese silk plant and Tokyo Women's College today and there was no repetition of yesterday's Communist-led demonstration.

The widow of the late U. S. President lunched with Gen. Mark Clark.

A group of Japanese woman carrying Communist banners surrounded Mrs. Roosevelt yesterday as she left a government office building, but a secretary said today the women did not touch her.

Some Japanese newspapers said

Husbands Quits Transamerica Banking Post

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—Sam H. Husbands resigned as president of Transamerica Corp. Monday because of "unhappy association with some board members" of the vast banking empire.

Husbands quit as the board elected Frank N. Belgrano, Jr., president of the First National Bank of Portland, Ore., to the board chairmanship.

Belgrano succeeds James F. Cavanaugh, who also resigned. Cavanaugh quit to concentrate on private business and recommended Belgrano as his successor. Cavanaugh remains a board member.

Husbands' successor as president was not named.

Husbands gave as reasons for his resignation (1) "arrangements" made by certain board members to elect Belgrano without consulting Husbands and (2) "continued unhappy association with some board members." He would not elaborate.

Husbands had headed the 300 million dollar firm, founded by the late A. P. Giannini, since June 1, 1946.

Belgrano, a member of the board, has been associated with the corporation since 1928.

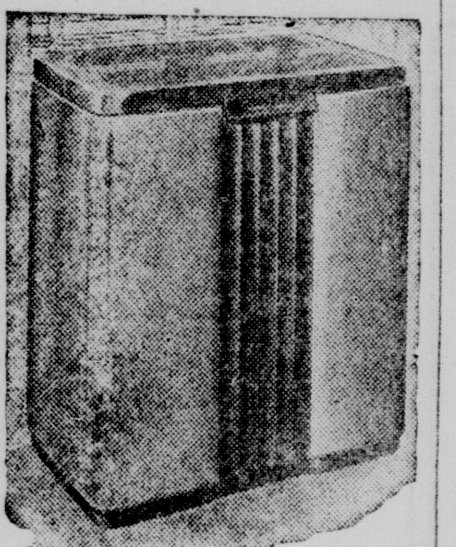

the women pulled Mrs. Roosevelt from the car when she refused them an interview. But the secretary, Maureen Corr, said Mrs. Roosevelt was not molested.

Holiday Traffic Warning Given By Hiway Patrol

Colonel Hugh H. Waggoner, superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol, today warned all motorists that the approaching Memorial Day week end will be one of tragedy, sorrow and suffering for many families in Missouri unless drivers exercise more care, courtesy, and common sense than they have on past holiday week ends.

Last year, in Missouri, 13 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the Memorial Day holiday. Ten of these were killed in the 240 accidents on rural highways, which were investigated by the Patrol. In addition, 239 persons were injured on the rural highways.

"We can reasonably expect the traffic toll during the coming holiday period to equal or exceed that of last year if the present trend of traffic accidents is an accurate guide," said Colonel Waggoner. "During the first four months of this year 308 persons have been killed in Missouri traffic accidents, compared with 292 during the same period of last year."

Colonel Waggoner made the following suggestions to motorists

District GOP Women's Clubs Meet In City

The 11th Congressional District Federation of Republican Women Clubs, comprising 17 counties, met Saturday in Sedalia and the session was well attended.

Mrs. Elsie Davis, Boonville, when driving during the coming holiday:

1. Start early and take your time. Excessive speed is the leading cause of rural accidents.
2. Observe all traffic signs, signals and markings, especially the yellow no-passing zone lines.
3. In heavy traffic, keep pace with the majority of traffic. Don't drive so slowly as to cause traffic to pile up behind you and don't try to pass every vehicle ahead of you. The few seconds saved are not worth the chances you take.
4. Do not drive after drinking.
